Welcome to Tennessee... We make our way to Pigeon Forge with a few stops along the way including a delicious dinner at the Applewood Farmhouse Grill... surrounded by orchards in a serene setting in the heart of Sevierville, Tennessee. We continue to Pigeon Forge and our home for the next 5 nights the Black Fox Lodge. It is ideally located and features great views of the Smoky Mountains and the Little Pigeon River.

After breakfast we'll depart in the Pink Jeeps for an adventure in the Smoky Mountains... We'll head toward a road where tour busses can't go. The heavily forested Roaring Fork Mother Nature Trail is a single lane road. The open-air Jeep beneath the canopy of trees fills your senses. We'll make stops at overlooks along the way that gives us striking views. You'll have some free time for lunch and to take in some of the attractions at the Island in Pigeon Forge this afternoon. After a hearty dinner we'll head to the Smoky Mountain Opry. The Opry is one of the largest and most beloved music productions in Pigeon Forge as it weaves together comedy, music, dance and more!

Enjoy the beautiful countryside this morning as we make our way to Asheville North Carolina. Welcome to the Biltmore Estates... Completed in 1895, George Vanderbilt's 250-room chateau is as impressive today as it was more than a century ago. Biltmore House is truly a wonder of architecture and hospitality. Our self-guided house visit spans three floors and the basement of the luxurious family home. We'll also have time to Stroll formal and informal gardens designed by Frederick Law Olmsted. Next, we head to lunch at Deerpark Restaurant located on the property... it features Mouth-watering southern cuisine. We also visit the winery & more on this remarkable complex before we head back to Pigeon Forge where your evening is free to explore.

After breakfast we'll Head to The Titanic Museum... Endorsed by the world-famous Titanic Historical Society, TMA is an internationally recognized living museum that holds the largest display of Titanic artifacts anywhere. You'll have some time to explore the Old Mill Square district on your own this afternoon. Discover the real flavors, craftsmanship, hospitality and history the Square features many Restaurants, shops and a historic Grist Mill. We'll meet up this afternoon at The Old Forge Distillery... to learn about "White Lightning" and more! Tonight, we'll head to Dollywood for the annual Harvest Festival... You'll be surrounded by the uplifting sounds of Southern gospel. See thousands of pumpkins glow at Great Pumpkin LumiNights.

This morning we'll head for a unique adventure at Anakeesta Park... you can choose to ride in an open-air 4-person chair with a safety bar or select an enclosed gondola cabin with seating for 6. This scenic ride takes us to 600' to the summit of Anakeesta Mountain where we'll will enter the whimsical Firefly Village. You will find plenty to do here ... walk on the Treetop Skywalk to visit the Treehouse Village and more! Tonight, we head to dinner at the Local Goat... Pigeon Forge's best restaurant for craft food and drinks. Next it the Soul of Motown... a tribute to the great Motown singers.

We'll make our way home today with memories of the beautiful Smoky Mountains and more!
