Welcome to Leavenworth, a slice of Bavaria nestled in the mountains of Central Washington State. During the holidays it becomes a magical place, filled with the finest Christmas lighting displays & decorations, fabulous shops, music, and wonderful food. We'll enjoy three nights at the Bavarian Village, in the heart of Leavenworth. Start each day with a fantastic breakfast buffet. Over the meadow and through the snowy woods, it's time for our sleigh ride! Sing along to the beat of the jingle bell, listen to the clomping hoofs of the horses as we dash through the snow on one of their custom hand-built sleighs. We'll travel along farm trails, over fields and through the woods snuggled under wool blankets. At the end of the ride warm yourself by the fire and sip on hot cocoa or pose for pictures with the horses. Then, we'll head to Gustav's for lunch... yum! Next, it's Liberty Orchards, makers of Aplets & Cotlets, sample wonderful chocolate candies and bakery items... We'll also visit the Cashmere Historic Museum & Pioneer Village in Cashmere, a 13,000 square foot facility housing beautifully displayed collections on pioneer history, American Indian history, archaeology and natural history. You're evening is free to explore and find the perfect Bavarian Dinner. The next day is yours to enjoy on your own. Later, we will rejoin and snack on cheese & crackers and wine & cider, while enjoying performances by the award winning high school choir - this is always a hit! Our farewell dinner follows at King Ludwig's, don't forget your dancing shoes! We'll make our way home through more gorgeous scenery with great memories of Leavenworth.
