Pennsylvania Heritage

8 Days / 7 Nights September 9-16, 2026

Walk in the footsteps of America's founders and stand where history changed the nation. From Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell to Amish Country, Hershey, and Gettysburg, this unforgettable journey brings the past vividly to life. Join OregonWest for a week of powerful stories, charming countryside, and meaningful experiences you'll never forget.

Day 1 – Welcome to Philadelphia

Arrive in the City of Brotherly Love and settle into our centrally located hotel in the heart of historic Philadelphia. This evening, enjoy a warm welcome dinner with your fellow travelers — the perfect start to a meaningful and memorable journey.

Day 2 – Where America Began

Explore Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, and Carpenters' Hall in the heart of Old City. After lunch, visit Franklin Court and the Benjamin Franklin Museum, then step inside the Betsy Ross House before enjoying a relaxed evening on your own.

Day 3 – History & Ideals Stroll charming Elfreth's

Walk charming Elfreth's Alley — the oldest continuously inhabited residential street in America — and see Christ Church, once attended by many of the Founding Fathers. Discover the inspiring National Constitution Center before touring Eastern State Penitentiary, one of the nation's most fascinating historic prisons.

Day 4 – Brandywine & Amish Country

Travel to Brandywine Battlefield for a guided interpretation of this pivotal Revolutionary War site. Continue into the rolling farmland of Lancaster County for a delicious lunch and a guided visit to an authentic Amish farm and home. Dinner and overnight in Lancaster.

Day 5 – Steam Trains & Country Charm

Enjoy time at Kitchen Kettle Village before touring the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania and riding the historic Strasburg Rail Road through beautiful farmland. Dinner included.

Day 6 – Sweet Moments in Hershey

Spend the day in Hershey with a trolley adventure, time for shopping, and a visit to Hershey Gardens. Enjoy dinner at the elegant Hershey Hotel.

Day 7 – Gettysburg

Experience a powerful guided tour of Gettysburg Battlefield, where the turning point of the Civil War unfolded. Walk the grounds, hear the stories, and reflect at this unforgettable American landmark. Lunch & dinner included.

Day 8 – A Revolutionary Finale

Visit the Museum of the American Revolution for a powerful conclusion to our journey before returning to Philadelphia for our flight home.
