Discover the beauty and spirit of Southern Arizona on this 7-day Tucson getaway. Explore Saguaro National Park, Sabino Canyon, and the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum. Experience Tombstone, Kartchner Caverns, and Biosphere 2 while enjoying a relaxing resort stay. With rich history, stunning scenery, and thoughtful pacing, this tour offers comfort, culture, and

Day 1 – Friday: Welcome to Arizona

Travel to Tucson with a visit to Mission San Xavier del Bac, the “White Dove of the Desert,” where you’ll enjoy a guided introduction to its rich history and stunning architecture. After a group lunch, arrive at your desert resort nestled in the Catalina foothills. Take time to relax, explore the beautiful grounds, or unwind after your journey. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner featuring scenic views, great conversation, and a warm introduction to the days ahead.

Day 2 – Saturday: Saguaro National Park

Begin your day exploring the Sonoran Desert with a scenic drive through Saguaro National Park, where towering cacti create a truly iconic landscape. Continue to the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum for a guided tour and time to explore its engaging exhibits featuring desert wildlife, plants, and geology. Enjoy lunch with beautiful mountain views before returning to the resort for a relaxing afternoon. This evening, gather for a fun and flavorful Western-style dinner, a perfect way to experience the region’s local character.

Day 3 – Sunday: Sabino Canyon & Tucson Art District

This morning, enjoy a scenic tram ride through Sabino Canyon, offering a comfortable and relaxing way to experience this beautiful desert oasis. After lunch in Tucson’s historic district, visit the Tucson Museum of Art and its surrounding historic block. Spend time exploring galleries, unique shops, and charming streets filled with local character. Return to the resort to relax and freshen up before enjoying a wonderful group dinner this evening.

Day 4 – Monday: Kartchner Caverns & Tombstone

Journey to Kartchner Caverns for a guided tour of its remarkable underground formations. Continue to Tombstone, where the Old West comes alive with a trolley tour, free time on Allen Street, and a gunfight reenactment at the O.K. Corral. Return to Tucson for dinner and a relaxing evening.

Day 5 – Tuesday: Biosphere 2 & Mountain Views

Visit the remarkable Biosphere 2 for a guided tour of this innovative research facility, where science and sustainability come together in a fascinating environment. Then travel the scenic Mount Lemmon Byway, ascending through dramatic changes in landscape and elevation. Stop for photos and take in sweeping views before reaching a charming mountain village for lunch. Return to Tucson in the afternoon with time to relax before enjoying a special group dinner at one of the area’s most highly regarded restaurants.

Day 6 – Wednesday: Tumacácori National Historical Park

Begin the day at Tumacácori National Historical Park, where you’ll learn about early Spanish mission life and explore the preserved ruins and grounds. Continue to Tubac, a charming and walkable artist village filled with galleries, boutiques, and local shops. Enjoy free time to browse, relax, and have lunch at your leisure. Return to Tucson in the afternoon for time to unwind before gathering for a memorable farewell dinner, celebrating a wonderful week of travel and shared experiences.

Day 7 – Thursday: Pima Air Museum and Home

Before departing Tucson, visit the Pima Air & Space Museum, home to one of the world’s largest collections of historic aircraft. Enjoy a guided tram tour and time to explore the exhibits at your own pace. After your visit, transfer to the airport for your return flight home. As you travel back to Portland, reflect on the incredible landscapes, rich history, and memorable moments experienced throughout your Southwest journey with OregonWest Excursions.
