

Amsterdam: Tulips, Canals & Windmills

A Low Countries Journey

April 14-23, 2027

Experience the magic of spring in the Netherlands and Belgium on this unforgettable journey through tulip-filled landscapes, medieval towns, and world-famous cultural treasures. Cruise Amsterdam's historic canals, stroll the enchanting streets of Bruges, explore the acclaimed In Flanders Fields Museum, marvel at Keukenhof Gardens in full bloom, and discover masterpieces by Van Gogh, Rembrandt, and Vermeer on this beautifully paced European adventure.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Keukenhof Gardens in Peak Tulip Season
- Private Amsterdam Canal Cruise
- Van Gogh Museum
- Rijksmuseum
- Anne Frank House
- Medieval Bruges, Belgium
- Bruges Food & Culture Tour
- Zaanse Schans Windmills
- In Flanders Fields Museum

PER PERSON PRICING

$6999 Double Occupancy

$8895 Single Occupancy

$1000 Deposit to Secure Booking Reservation
Final Payment Due January 5, 2027

Trip Insurance is Highly Recommended

For More Information or Reservations Contact:

OregonWest Excursions

503-585-3979

brandon@orwest.com

Amsterdam: Tulips, Canals & Windmills

A Low Countries Journey

10 Days / 8 Nights April 14-23, 2027

Escape to Texas for Gulf Coast charm, Space Center Houston, Fredericksburg wineries, the San Antonio River Walk, and Texas history — all with comfortable pacing, premium hotels, and mild February weather.

Amsterdam: Tulips, Canals & Windmills

The Netherlands & Belgium • April 14–23, 2027

Springtime in the Low Countries is unlike anywhere else in the world. As millions of tulips burst into bloom across the Dutch countryside, historic cities come alive with colorful flower displays, bustling outdoor cafés, and the unmistakable energy of a new season. Join OregonWest Excursions on a carefully crafted journey through the Netherlands and Belgium, where centuries of history, world-class art, picturesque canals, and charming medieval towns create an unforgettable European adventure.

Begin in Amsterdam, one of Europe's most captivating cities, where elegant canal houses, historic waterways, and vibrant public squares provide the perfect introduction to Dutch culture. Cruise the city's famous canals, stand before masterpieces by Rembrandt and Vermeer in the Rijksmuseum, and experience the extraordinary works of Vincent van Gogh in the world's largest collection dedicated to the beloved artist.

Cross into Belgium and discover the enchanting city of Bruges, where cobblestone streets, centuries-old buildings, and winding canals create a setting straight from a storybook. Sample local specialties on a guided food tour and explore the beautifully preserved medieval center. A visit to nearby Ypres and the acclaimed In Flanders Fields Museum offers a moving and unforgettable look at the sacrifices made during the First World War.

Returning to the Netherlands, experience one of Europe's great spring spectacles at Keukenhof Gardens, where millions of blooming tulips, daffodils, and hyacinths create a breathtaking display of color. Discover traditional Dutch life at Zaanse Schans, where working windmills, cheese-making demonstrations, and artisan workshops preserve centuries-old traditions.

The journey concludes with some of Amsterdam's most meaningful and memorable experiences, including the Anne Frank House, the Rembrandt House Museum, and the peaceful gardens of Hortus Botanicus. Combined with comfortable accommodations, hosted meals, and the camaraderie of fellow travelers, this tour offers the perfect blend of beauty, culture, history, and discovery. From tulip fields and windmills to medieval towns and world-renowned museums, this is spring in Europe at its finest.